DETAILED ACTION

In view of the appeal brief filed on May 30, 2006, PROSECUTION IS HEREBY REOPENED. New ground of rejections are set forth below.

To avoid abandonment of the application, appellant must exercise one of the following two options:

(1) file a reply under 37 CFR 1.111 (if this Office action is non-final) or a reply under 37 CFR 1.113 (if this Office action is final); or,

(2) request reinstatement of the appeal.

If reinstatement of the appeal is requested, such request must be accompanied by a supplemental appeal brief, but no new amendments, affidavits (37 CFR 1.130, 1.131 or 1.132) or other evidence are permitted. See 37 CFR 1.193(b)(2).

The rejection under 35 USC 112, first paragraph is withdrawn in view of the remarks filed May 30, 2006.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 12-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for the use of zonisamide, in the dosage disclosed in Example 5 of the instant specification, does not reasonably provide enablement for other dosage of zonisamide in treating essential tremor. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims. NI the instant case, Taira clearly teaches zonisamide would induce tremor. There is no guidance in the instant specification to employ other dosage different from that employed in the instant specification, Example 5. Therefore, in view of the teachings of Taira and the disclosure of the instant specification, the claims are properly rejected under 35 USC 112, first paragraph.
